"John Quincy Adams." Half length seated. Book in hand. Line engraving by J. Andrews after G. P. Healy. Folio. Boston, 1848. $7.50

Fine and scarce.

2 ARNOLD, BENEDICT.

"Colonel Arnold, who commanded the Provincial troops sent against Quebec through the wilderness of Canada, and was wounded in storming that city under General Montgomery." Three-quarter length in uniform, with cocked hat. View of Quebec in background. John Martin Will excudit Aug. Vind. Folio. London. Thos. Hart, 1776. $125.00

Of the very greatest rarity and a beautiful impression.

3 ARNOLD, BENEDICT.

"Colonel Arnold, who commanded the Provincial troops sent against Quebec through the wilderness of Canada, and was wounded in storming that city under General Montgomery." Three-quarter length in uniform. Engraved in mezzotint, by LORENZ RUGENDAS. Folio. Augsburg. About 1776. $165.00

The rarest of all contemporary portraits of Arnold. Brilliant impression.

4 BECKFORD, PETER.

"Peter Beckford, Esq.; Lieut. Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Jamaica. He passed thro most of the military as well as civil employments of the Island, was for several years President of the Council, distinguished himself at the French Invasion, 1693. Fortified Port Royal and Commanded the Corps of Volunteers in the expedition against Hispaniola. Having been successful in all his Enterprises, he left a great Estate and vast Tracts of Land, which were much improved by his eldest son, Peter Beckford, Esq., who at his death was in possession of the largest Property, Real and Personal, of any Subject in Europe." Full length in court dress, most beautifully embroidered. View of Port Royal in background. Mezzotint engraved by John Murphy from the original painting at FONTHILL. Folio. London. Edward Foxhall, 1793.

$100.00

A very beautiful Old English mezzotint, not only interesting for its association with the West Indies, but also as depicting the father of William Beckford, the patron of John Wilkes and Thomas Chatterton, and grandfather of the author of "VATHEK," owner of the princely Fonthill library. VERY RARE.

5 BURGOYNE, JOHN.

"John Burgoyne." General in the British army. Witnessed the Battle of Bunker Hill. In command of the army which forced the evacuation of Crown Point, Ticonderoga and Fort Anne. Surrendered with his entire army to General Gates at Saratoga, October 17, 1777, the turning point of the American Revolution. Died in London in 1792.

$75.00

THE ORIGINAL SEPIA-DRAWING OF GEN. BURGOYNE, IN UNIFORM, WITH COCKED HAT, VERY FINELY EXECUTED BY J. CHAPMAN, THE FAMOUS ENGLISH PORTRAIT PAINTER AND ENGRAVER. From this drawing he engraved in stipple the well-known portrait of Gen. Burgoyne, published in 1801. The drawing is accompanied by a brilliant impression of the engraving. The portrait is oval in form, being 4½ inches high, the same size as the engraving, and is mounted on black glass, gilt, and framed in ebony.

6 CALHOUN, JOHN.

"John Calhoun." Full length, standing, hand resting on documents on table inscribed "Sovereignty of the States," "Free Trade," etc. Engraved in line by A. H. Ritchie, after T. Hicks. Folio. New York. R. A. Bachia.

$7.50

7 CALIFORNIA.

"Harbour and City of Monterey, California, 1842." Outline plan, with 33 references forming a directory of the inhabitants. Oblong folio. Monterey, 1842. $75.00

Virtually the first Directory of Monterey in English. In the bay are seen the U. S. ships, "Cyane," "United States" and "Yorktown," with the schooner, "California." Among the property owners are mentioned The Padres House, Thomas O. Larkin, George Kinlock, Carmen Pinto, David Spence, Wreck Commissioner Rodgers, Charles Wolter, Antonio Osio, Simeon Castro, James Stokes, and others.

8 CALIFORNIA.

"San Francisco, 1855." The magnificent panoramic etching executed by CHARLES MERYON for T. R. Bayerque and A. Pioche, the two bankers who gave him the commission for the plate. Their portraits occupy two small medallions in the inscription tablet. The entire view is 38 inches long and $7\frac{1}{4}$ inches high. Paris. A. Delattre, 1856. \$75.00

A proof presentation copy, with untrimmed margins. Meryon is described by Hamerton as one of the greatest and most original artists who have appeared in Europe. "He is one of the Immortals, and his name will be inscribed on the Noble roll, where Durer and Rembrandt live forever."

9 CANADA.

"Montreal from the Mountain," with title repeated in French. Engraved by J. Walker. Oblong folio. Montreal n. d. $30.00

Scarce.

10 CHOATE, JOSEPH HODGES.

Eminent Jurist. President of the Union League Club and of the New England Society in New York. Full bust. Full face. Proof impression on Japan paper signed by the artist, James S. King. Folio. New York, 1899.

$15.00

Special copy, autographed by Mr. Choate.

11 CLAY, HENRY.

"Henry Clay." Full length, seated on a bank by a river. Dog in foreground. In border a vignette of Ashland. Engraved in mezzotint by H. Sadd, after J. Dodge. Folio. New York, 1843. $6.00

12 CLAY, HENRY.

"Henry Clay." Full length, standing. Head slightly to right. Table with books and cane to right. In stipple and line. Folio. New York. R. A. Bachia. About 1840. $6.00

13 CLAY AND FRELINGHUYSEN.

"Candidates for President and Vice President." Medallion portraits in ornamental and emblematic framework. American eagle and flags at head. Finely printed in colors. Folio. Hartford. Kellogg and Hammer, 1844. $4.50

Theodore Frelinghuysen was Chancellor of the University of New York, and in 1844 was nominated by the Whig Convention to run with Henry Clay in the Presidential Election of that year. Fine and scarce.

14 COLORADO.

"The Rocky Mountains." Encampment of Indians in the foreground comprising numerous figures. In the background snow covered mountains, with waterfall and lake. ENGRAVED BY J. SMILLIE, AFTER A. BIERSTADT. Large oblong folio in fine gilt frame. New York, 1864. $100.00

A BEAUTIFULLY COLORED IMPRESSION OF ONE OF BIERSTADT'S FINEST WESTERN PAINTINGS. As a landscape engraver, Smillie has never been surpassed in America.

15 DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

Trumbull's fine picture of the Signing of the Declaration printed in purple upon linen, with key of the signers' heads below accompanied by the fac-simile autograph of each signer. Size, 30 inches wide by 28 inches high. No place or date, but about 1830. $75.00

OF CONNECTICUT ORIGIN AND EXTREMELY RARE.

16 DOUGLAS, SIR CHARLES

"Rear Admiral Sir Chas. Douglas Bart." Full length in uniform, with drawn sword, giving orders on ship-board, with left hand resting on a gun. Engraved in mezzotint by J. Jones, after H. Singleton. Folio. London. C. Lowndes, 1791. $125.00

At the beginning of the American War, Admiral Douglas was in command of the squadron operating in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. In 1776 he forced his way up the river and relieved the City of Quebec and defeated the French at Dominica. He invented a mode of firing guns on board ships by means of locks instead of matches. This device is shown on the gun by his side.

17 DU SIMITIÈRE'S PORTRAITS.

"Thirteen portraits of American Legislators, Patriots and Soldiers, who distinguished themselves in rendering their Country Independent. Drawn from life by Du Simitière, Painter and Member of the Philosophical Society in Philadelphia, and engraved by MR. B. READING." Small folio, original half red roan. London. W. Richardson, 1783. $300.00

COMPLETE SET OF OPEN LETTER PROOFS AND EXCEEDINGLY RARE. The series comprises George Washington, Baron De Steuben, Silas Deane, General Reed, Governor Morris, General Gates, John Jay, W. H. Drayton, Henry Laurens, Charles Thompson, S. Huntingdon, J. Dickenson, and General Arnold. SPLENDID COPY.

18 FRANKLIN BENJAMIN.

Full bust to right. Spectacles in left hand and quill pen in the right. Mezzotint by Isaac Jehner. Oval in rectangle. 4to. London. About 1780. $500.00

THE RAREST ENGRAVED PORTRAIT OF FRANKLIN IN EXISTENCE; ONLY ONE OTHER COPY BEING KNOWN. A most brilliant impression.

19 FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN.

"D. Benjamin Franklin, et vita inter Americanos acta, et magnis electricitatis periculis clarus." Full bust, nearly full face to left, long hair. Oval in rectangle over tablet. In mezzotint by I. E. Haid. 4to. Augsburg, 1778.

$35.00

Fine and rare portrait of the Benjamin Wilson type.

20 FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN.

"Benjamin Franklin, born at Boston, January the 17th, 1706." Bust to left in circle, with spectacles and fur cap. Engraved in stipple and beautifully printed in COLORS, by C. Ruotte. 4to. 1780.

$150.00

One of the very finest and rarest of the French portraits of Franklin. Very choice impression.

21 FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN.

Original oil painting by Duplessis, the famous French portraitist, painted for Mr. Barnet, the Consul General for the United States at Paris during Franklin's residency there. In the portrait the artist has depicted Franklin full bust slightly to the right wearing long hair, without spectacles, plain black coat and white scarf piece. Size, 22 inches by 15 inches, in old gilt frame. About 1780.

$1,800.00

A most important and highly valuable historical portrait.

22 FRASER, GENERAL SIMON.

"The Burial of General Fraser." Military group in various British uniforms. Engraved in stipple and printed in colors by Nutter, after Graham. Oblong folio. London. John Jeffreys, 1794.

$200.00

An extremely rare and beautiful historical engraving. Fraser was with Wolfe at Quebec, and in 1777 as Colonel drove the Americans out of Canada, being in command at the severe battle at Three Rivers. He was then selected by Burgoyne to command the right wing of his army. After the evacuation of Ticonderoga he pursued the American troops under St. Clair and with Riedesel gained a signal victory at Hubbardtown. At Bemis Heights he opened the battle of October 7th by an attack on Morgan's skirmishes in which action he was mortally wounded by Tim Murphy, one of Morgan's riflemen, under that officer's instructions. He died the following morning and was buried at sunset by his particular request on a hill overlooking the Hudson. As the funeral party moved up the hill the American batteries opened fire, but ceased as soon as the nature of the gathering was known. Generals Burgoyne and Riedesel with Chaplain Brudenell are figured in the group, and in the background can be seen the American batteries in action. A SUPERB IMPRESSION.

23 FULLER, MELVILLE W.

Chief Justice of the U. S., 1888-1910. Proof etching on parchment, signed by the artist, James S. King, and autographed by Chief Justice Fuller. Folio. New York, 1900.
$20.00

Melville W. Fuller, of Illinois, was born in 1833 and died in 1910.

24 GATES, HORATIO.

"Le General Gates qui a environné et fait prisonnier le General Lieutenant Bourgoyne, avec toute son Armée en Amerique." Peint par Thomlinson à Nouvelle Yorck. Half length in uniform. Oval in rectangle. Mezzotint. 4to. Londres, chez Thom. Hart. 1778. $85.00

A wonderfully fine impression of this excessively rare print.

25 GATES, HORATIO.

"Horatio Gates, Esq., Major General of the American Forces." Three-quarter length in uniform, head slightly to left. The right hand is resting upon a table upon which are some documents inscribed, "Articles of Convention between Gen. Gates and Gen. Burgoyne." In the background tents and cannon. Folio. London. John Morris, 1778. $75.00

An American historical engraving of great rarity and value.

26 GRANT, GENERAL.

"Gen. Grant and His Family." Engraved in mezzotint by John Sartain after the painting by William Cogswell. Folio. Washington, 1868. $10.00

33 HARRISON, WILLIAM HENRY.

"General William H. Harrison." Half length in uniform. Head slightly to right. Powerful lithograph by Sarony. Folio. New York, n. d. $5.00

34 HAWTHORNE, NATHANIEL.

Author of "The Scarlet Letter." Full bust to right. Remarque proof etching on Japan paper by Henri Lefort, signed by the artist. Folio. New York, 1897. $15.00
The rare Grolier Club limited issue.

35 HOPKINS, ADMIRAL.

"Admiral Hopkins, Commandeur en Chef de la Flotte Americaine des XIII Provinces Unies." Half length in uniform, with flags in rear, inscribed, "Don't Tread Upon Me," and "Liberty Tree," both in English and French. Oval in rectangle. Painted by WILCKENSON OF BOSTON. Small folio. London. Thomas Hart. 1776. $125.00

ESEK HOPKINS, OF RHODE ISLAND, WAS THE FIRST COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE AMERICAN ARMY, receiving his Commission from the Continental Congress in December, 1775. He was officially addressed by Washington as Admiral Hopkins, and in February, 1776, he put to sea with the first squadron sent out by the Colonies. It consisted of four ships and three sloops and did much execution in the Bahamas. Charges were brought against him for not engaging the "Glasgow" of 29 guns off Block Island and after various proceedings he was dismissed from the service. A MOST IMPORTANT RHODE ISLAND HISTORICAL ITEM.

"The Right Honble. Richard Lord Howe, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Fleets in America." Three-quarter length in naval uniform, drawn sword in right hand, and with the left pointing to ships in the background. Mezzotint by and after Corbutt, otherwise R. Purcell. Folio. London. John Morris, 10th Nov. 1778.

Magnificent impression and exceedingly rare. Lord Howe had just acquired great renown in England by forcing the passage of the Delaware. In 1782 he effected the Relief of Gibraltar.

37 HOWE, RICHARD LORD.

"The Right Honble. Richard Lord Howe, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Fleet in the Channel." Three-quarter length in naval uniform, drawn sword in right hand, the left pointing to a ship named "Queen Charlotte." Mezzotint by Corbutt. Folio. London. Laurie and Whittle, 1794.

38 HOWE, SIR WILLIAM.

"The Honble. Sr. Wm. Howe, Knight of the Bath and Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in America."

Half length, in uniform, with ribbon and star. Oval in rectangle. PRINTED IN RED. Drawn and engraved in mezzotint by Corbutt. Small folio. London. John Morris, 1777. $100.00

A very rare mezzotint portrait, unknown to J. C. Smith, of one of the most successful English soldiers of his time. He was educated at Eton, commanded a regiment at the capture of Louisbourg and led the Forlorn Hope at the Heights of Abraham. Succeeded Gage as commander in the American Colonies. Evacuated Boston and in 1776 defeated the American forces on Long Island. Captured New York and won battles of White Plains and Brandywine. In 1777 failed to draw Washington into further action after taking Philadelphia and resigned his command in 1778.

39 IRVING, WASHINGTON.

Original pencil drawing of Washington Irving, Daniel Webster, and William Cullen Bryant, by DANIEL HUNTINGTON, on the occasion of the memorial meeting of the New York Historical Society in celebration of James Fenimore Cooper, whose death had occurred in September of 1851. Signed by the artist, "D. Huntington, del Cooper Festival, 24 Feb., 1852." Size, 15 inches by 12 inches, in old gilt frame, 1852. $250.00

Of extreme Washington Irving interest as it was through the influence of Webster that he had received his appointment as Minister to the Court of Spain.

40 JACKSON, ANDREW.

"Jackson." Bust nearly full face. Line and stipple engraved by T. B. Welch, after the original, by THOMAS SULLY. Folio. Philadelphia. Geo. W. Childs, n. d.

Proof impression. Scarce.

41 JEFFERSON, THOMAS.

"Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States."

An exceedingly rare life engraving of Jefferson.

42 JONES, JOHN PAUL.

"Paul Jones shooting a Sailor who had attempted to strike his colours in an engagement." Full length in uniform, with a Scotch cap, on board a man-of-war, with numerous wounded sailors on deck. Mezzotint, after John Collet. Folio. London. Carington Bowles, 1779. $150.00

A highly dramatic and very rare representation of the "Father of the American Navy."

42a JONES, JOHN PAUL.

"Paul Jones. Intrépide Marin Ecossais au service des Américains né en 1727, mort à Paris 1792." Engraved by Varin. Full bust, head to right. Cocked hat. Printed in brown. 4to, Paris. Vignères, 1875. $7.00

An uncommon and very characteristic head.

"Paul Jones the Pirate." A highly dramatic and very curious picture of Jones in pirate's dress with an immense cocked hat adorned with the death's head and cross bones. Pistol in left hand and huge sabre in right. In the background a ship exploding and sailors fighting. Apparently the only portrait of Jones wearing fierce black whiskers. 4to. Tabernacle Road. A Park. About 1820. $17.50

Rare.

43 KEPPEL, AUGUSTUS.

"The Honorable Augustus Keppel, Admiral of the Blue Squadron, and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Fleet which engaged and defeated the French on the 27th and 28th of July, 1778, off Ushant." Full length, leaning against a gun. In the background several ships, one named "Victory." Brilliantly colored mezzotint. Folio. London. Carington Bowles, 1779. $75.00

A scarce portrait of this English sailor. He accompanied Anson on his voyage around the world and saw much service in the Mediterranean against the Algerine and Tripoli pirates.

44 LAFAYETTE, MARQUIS DE.

"M le Marquis de Lafayette—M. Bailly." Full bust, profile to right. In uniform. Mezzotint printed in colors. Portrait of Bailly facing. Circular medallions in rectangles. Oblong, 4to. Paris, chez Crèpy, 1793. $50.00

THE MOST IMPORTANT AND MOST INTERESTING VIEW OF WALL STREET IN EXISTENCE. Only three copies of it are known.

58 NEW YORK.

"New York from Hobuck Ferry House, New Jersey." Engraved in aquatint by Francis Jukes, after the original painting by ALEXANDER ROBERTSON. Oblong folio in old gilt frame. London and New York, 1800. $750.00

A VERY RARE AND VERY BEAUTIFUL VIEW CHARMINGLY COLORED. Alexander Robertson took lessons in England from the famous miniaturist Shelley and came to America in 1792 and was highly successful as a landscape painter in water colors.

NEW YORK
FROM HOBUCK FERRY HOUSE, NEW JERSEY. No. 58

59 NEW YORK.

"The American Fireman. Always Ready." Old New York fireman with hand engine and drawing attachments. In colors. Drawn by F. Maurer. Folio. New York. Currier and Ives, 1858. $15.00

A very interesting relic of the Old New York Fire Department and now very scarce.

60 NEW YORK.

"To His Excellency Sir Henry Moore, Captain General and Chief, in and over the Province of New York and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the Same. THIS PLAN OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK is most humbly inscribed by His Excellency's most Obedient Servant, BERND. RATZEN, Lieut. in the 60th Regiment. Surveyed in 1767." ENGRAVED BY T. KITCHIN. Large oblong folio. London, 1767. $350.00

The rare issue with Ratzer's name incorrectly spelled Ratzen by the engraver. Other mistakes which were afterwards corrected are "Deekman's" Street for "Beekman." Cliff Street is here called "Clist." Whilst Bridge Street appears here as "Wyne Coop" and the "Ropewalk" extending along the line of Division Street disappeared altogether from the Ratzer map. Another street here known as "Judith" does not appear under that name in the Ratzer. There are many other variations of interest which will be found fully described in the "Iconography of Manhattan Island," by I. N. Phelps Stokes. He only mentions knowing three copies of the plan, and says in conclusion: "THE RATZEN AND RATZER PLANS ARE THE MOST ACCURATE AND RELIABLE WHICH WE HAVE OF NEW YORK AT THIS PERIOD, AND ARE EVEN TO-DAY MUCH USED IN SEARCHING TITLES."

61 NEW YORK.

Scare and fine.

68 RAILROADS.

Unique old railroad relic, being one of the ornamental panels cut from one of the cars destroyed in the memorable wreck on the CAMDEN AND AMBOY RAILROAD AT BURLINGTON, NEW JERSEY, AUGUST 29TH, 1855. The painting, which is exceedingly well executed, represents an Italian lake scene, with marble terrace in foreground. It is especially of very considerable interest as displaying the attention paid by the railroad heads to the interior decoration of their cars at this period. The cars were constructed at the railroad shops at Bordentown, and the panel was preserved as a memento of the disaster. The very solid frame is composed of moulding that was also taken from the car. Size, 20 inches by 17 inches. Borden-town, 1855. $50.00

69 RAILWAY.

"Pleasure Railway at Hoboken." Very curious lithographic view of a circular track on which two couples are propelling themselves in small chariot-shaped cars. Apparently situated in some public park or pleasure grounds, with numerous figures either seated or promenading. Size, 11 inches by 8 inches. Hartford. D. W. Kellogg. About 1827. $35.00

An extremely curious and interesting New Jersey item.

Powerful impression. Very rare.

72 ROGERS, ROBERT.

"Major Robert Rogers, Commander in Chief of the Indians in the Back Settlements of America." Three-quarter length in military costume, with 3 Indians, armed and plumed, in the background. Mezzotint. Folio. Augsburg. L. Rugendas, 1776. $125.00

A rare mezzotint engraving of the greatest interest to Indian collectors. Rogers was born at Dumbarton, New Hampshire. Commanded "Roger's Rangers" in the great war with the French and Indians from 1755 to 1760. Compiled his famous "Journals" and "Concise Account of North America" which contain the most authentic details recorded of Indian warfare and border life of the period. In 1765 Rogers was appointed Governor of Mackinaw. He left a diary of the Siege of Detroit by Pontiac which was published in 1860. All his portraits are rare.

Taken between the 22nd and 28th of October, 1781. Finely engraved on copper with handsome scroll at bottom, backed by flags, insignia and military paraphernalia by R. Scott. Atlas folio, neatly framed and glazed, size 25½x18¼ inches. Philadelphia, 1782. $175.00

AN EXTREMELY RARE AND IMPORTANT CONTEMPORARY REVOLUTIONARY MAP, having been issued separately and not taken from a book. Dedicated to "His Excellency, General Washington, Commander-in-Chief of the Armies of the U. S. of America."

Sebastian Bauman, the designer, was distinguished in many ways throughout the Revolution. Beginning as captain in the "German Fusileers," New York, May, 1775, he passed through divers' grades of the service, was in command at West Point, at intervals, 1781-2, and served until June 20, 1784. He was the last to leave New York City when the British took possession, having been left there with only 80 men and 2 howitzers. WHILE AT WEST POINT HE PREPARED MAPS OF THAT POST FOR WASHINGTON, AND THESE PAPERS ALSO PREPARED BY HIM FOR WASHINGTON WERE STOLEN BY BENEDICT ARNOLD AND AFTERWARDS FOUND IN ANDRE'S BOOT UPON THE LATTER'S CAPTURE. HE WAS PRESENT AT THE SURRENDER OF CORNWALLIS, and during THE SIEGE OF YORKTOWN DREW THE MAP ABOVE, which he caused to be engraved at the special request of Washington and of some of his officers. He was, later, colonel in the army and was appointed by Washington the first Federal Postmaster of New York City. He died in 1803.

96 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM.

PORTRAIT OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN. Painted in oil from Life by the Western Artist H. COLCARD. Face to right with Beard, grayish blue eyes, black tie. Size 21 inches by 26 inches in a very handsome Rococo Frame. About 1863-4. $3,500.00

A SUPERB OIL PAINTING OF LINCOLN. Only a very few portraits of him were painted in Lincoln's lifetime and these are all in public institutions. This portrait was formerly in the Libby Prison War Museum where it was seen and much admired by numbers of Lincoln's personal friends and contemporaries.

97 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM.

Portrait of President Lincoln, three-quarter length, seated beside a roll-top desk; face to right. The original crayon drawing by Brady in life size. 64 x 54 inches, with frame richly gilt. Washington. 1864. $2,500.00

Unique and extremely fine Lincoln life portrait and considered by Lincoln himself as his very best portrait. It was especially executed in 1864 by Anthony Brady, the famous Civil War photographer and artist at Washington. He rated it as one of his finest works and it remained on exhibition, and not for sale, in his gallery until the opening of the Centennial Exposition in 1876, where it was placed on view with portraits also by Brady of Grant, Sherman, Thomas and Farragut, all of the same style and uniform in size. At the close of the Exposition Brady again exhibited it at his Washington gallery where it remained till his death.

A PRICELESS ACQUISITION TO ANY PUBLIC OR PRIVATE LINCOLN MEMORIAL COLLECTION AS HAVING BEEN DRAWN UNDER LINCOLN'S OWN APPROVAL AT THE HEIGHT OF HIS CAREER AND THE FINEST PORTRAIT OF HIM EVER PRODUCED.

98 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM.
